mankind helped human being to be civilized. For example the invention of fire is supposed to be a mile stone in the march of civilization. Man began to keep pet animals with themselves. The domestication of such animals helps man in many ways. The invention of language, art of writing and the invention of printing press made man elevated from wild state to his present civilized state. It is civilization which gave idea to live in a family. also gave some norms to the society to lead moral life. Civilization taught us to be more friendly towards one another. On the other hand man has some drawbacks too which are not found in animals. It is emotion which snatch mental peace of human being but other moral and intellectual qualities help mankind to be happier and more peaceful.
